Ancestry Library Edition

This subscription database contains indexes for a number of state censuses across the United States, with special emphasis on the 1890 gap. Some Michigan state census records are found here.

HeritageQuest: PERSI

This subscription database available to all Michigan residents at the Michigan eLibrary (http://mel.org) contains PERSI, the Periodical Source Index, which indexes genealogical journals and periodicals. Many citations for indexes to state census records can be found in this database, including the 1884 Michigan state census for Wayne County.

An excellent starting-off point for state census research, with links to the various state projects.

Michigan State Censuses: Population Schedules (1884 and 1894 only)

Available at the Library of Michigan

What follows is a detailed listing of the Library of Michigan's holdings of Michigan state census population schedules, covering specifically the 1884 and 1894 enumerations. A "Y" under the Index column indicates that the Library owns an index for this county, which generally includes only the names of the heads of household; an "N" means that the Library does not own an index. In the Notes column, "Incomplete" means that the Library of Michigan does not own the entire state census for that year, or that not all of the county's records have survived. "Abstract" indicates that the Library of Michigan's copy has been compiled or transcribed from the original source.
